WWE Hall of Famer and WWE Legend 'The Nature Boy' J.R. "Hot Rod" Harmon could not make it up to the Hall of Fame tonight in Houston. Harmon had planned to take part in the ceremony with his peers, but due to the coronavirus pandemic, WWE decided to air the ceremony earlier than expected. Harmon's family and friends communicated their disappointment by sharing a heartfelt letter to the fans asking them to support them during this difficult time. "First off, before I get started, I want to say that I am so sorry that you will not get the opportunity to see me in the Hall of Fame for tonight. While this might be a disappointment to some, I am excited to say that you will be seeing me at a very special ceremony in the near future. After all, I may not have been inside the Hall of Fame to receive the honor, but the future will bring me back and when it does, I will be well prepared," wrote Harmon. "With a heavy heart, I am leaving you all tonight because I never get to see you on Sunday nights. It is on Sunday nights that I see my boys on WWE Raw or Smackdown, and, for some reason, I am not surprised that they make it so great, but am still disappointed. "When I get my opportunity to return, don't be surprised to see me back on Smackdown. After all, where there's a fire, there's fuel. I am just glad I get to see them as much as I can, as long as they want to be there. "This is not a goodbye. I am just trying to get this letter right. I am tired of this. I am so tired of this, but I know that the Lord will reward me and I will see you all later this year. When it is time for me to return, I will be ready. I just hope that my sons will give me the benefit of the doubt and remember how much I love them. To the WWE Universe, thank you for being there. You are a true blessing. You have really been there for me these last 21 years. It is truly appreciated. I will be back one day." After the letter, the first part of the ceremony aired on Raw before airing on the WWE Network and ending with the induction of the Hardys. Get all the latest news from WWE SmackDown on the WWE
