I need to do something like a concatenation on a couple of columns from a bunch of files. So I have: A folder with ~500 files. Each file is a field/row in the final result. The files all have these columns: Field1 Field2 Now I need to add the values of Field2 from all files into one sheet. The folder is like this: field1.csv field2.csv field3.csv field4.csv field500.csv field501.csv A: You can use this M code in PowerQuery. Import the files in column A and the values in column B and export the output as a CSV. Of course you will need to work the max value of column B, or you can create an if statement in M.
