November 28, 2014 - Sitra 2010 Norms Explained. SOUTH INDIAN TEXTILE RESEARCH ASSOCIATION COIMBATORE.

In recent years, the spinning industry has seen a new generation of CNC spinning machines with speed monitoring. In most cases, they are state-of-the-art high-performance systems that reduce production waste, provide a high level of safety and reduce costs. However, despite all these advantages, there are a number of problems in the practice of using such machines.
